Attorney's Docket No.: 09765-019002

REMARKS

On September 22, 2005, the examiner and the undersigned had a telephonic interview, in which the undersigned pointed out that Applicant had submitted a preliminary amendment with the filing of this continuation application. The preliminary amendment added claims 18-49 and amended certain of claims 1-17.

Upon review of the file the Examiner agreed that the preliminary amendment was received by the office and was not examined by the examiner. Thus, upon receipt of this Interview Summary, the examiner agreed to reexamine the application including the preliminary amendment, send Applicant a new office action, if warranted, and reset the statutory period for response.

No fee is believed to be due. Please apply any other charges or credits to deposit account 06-1050.

Respectfully submitted,
